

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=T_wO3-WilBM (St. Martin: The Friendly Island)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GqVjD3nBSQg> (Jet blast)

St. Martin have (has!) a little bit of everything. The people are nice. The food is great. The beautiful people are always friendly. The people on the island are very lovely lovely lovely and very friendly. This place is so, so gorgeous. The island of Sint Maarten, one side Dutch and one side French, it's one of the most unique Caribbean islands. Stunning beaches, exquisite cuisine, history, culture, and laid-back island vibes is what this island is known for. And perhaps the most famous attraction in St. Maarten, yes you've seen it in pictures, Maho Beach. Right next to the Princess Juliana International Airport. Maho Beach on the Dutch side of the island is known for its low flying jets that pass over the beach. If you're looking for somewhere to stay, the Belmond La Semanna on one of the most gorgeous beaches in St. Martin Baie Longue is a stunning luxury resort on the French side, tucked away with complete privacy. This is a romantic decoration. Romantic architecture with a 30 foot long pool, 83 spacious deluxe rooms and suites as well as seven 3-4 bedroom villas. At La Semanna, it's a unique Mediterranean oasis in the French West Indies. VIP people start to come to St. Martin lives in this private area. That's why it is so romantic and so closed, so closed. Zip lining, lush greenery and beautiful surroundings. A day trip to Loterie Farm is one thing you cannot miss when in St. Martin. We go from tree top to tree top sometimes monkey bridges, logs, tightrope, bets, ladders and so forth. Always keep your glove in all the way behind. 2007 we added on a fly zone extreme which has the same type of obstacles but as the name implies, is a little bit more extreme on that one. We drive people up close to the top of the mountain, much longer obstacles and much longer zip lines. If adventure isn't your thing and you just want to relax, Loterie Farm is the perfect place to do so. Relaxation, tranquility and equal chic (?) in the inner sense. One of the biggest draws to St. Maarten is the diverse selection of cuisine and one of the best places to experience the vibrant culinary cuisine is in Gran Cass. On St. Martin you will find different food. You will find quail, you'll find French cuisine, you'll find Jamaican food. You know, it's a little bit of everything. One place to get a true taste of the authentic French Caribbean food is Villa Royale. The people who do know this existed do come along because they love it. They love how we serve and the food as well. Simple. This is the Atlas moth, the largest moth in the world, the wingspan ranging between 8 and 12 inches. Once you're full and satisfied, you'll find a family-friendly popular attraction, the Butterfly Farm. Now the difference between the moth and the butterfly. Moths, they have floppy antennae (or antennas). The males are way fluffier than the females. Learn about these fascinating creatures and get up close to nature. Oh, my God! With rolling hills and warm waters, a sailing trip when in St. Maarten is a must-do. (And sail?) over to the nearby islands, Pine Island and Tintamarre. St. Maarten, a truly unique Caribbean island with warm locals, gorgeous beaches and out-of-this-world scenery and a true chilled-out vibe that will leave you longing to come back.

Dutch → from Holland/Netherlands

so gorgeous → very, very beautiful, so beautiful, it touches you emotionally stunning beaches → shockingly beautiful, so beautiful it stops you and touches you laid back island vibes → a feeling, you feel rested and no one is in a hurry to do anything low flying jets → jets flying very close to the ground

Baie Longue → French for long bay tucked away → means in a place that is hard to find spacious deluxe rooms → very big fancy rooms with many extras

VIP → a VIP is a very important person lush greenery → lots and lots of green plants covering everything, like a jungle but also very beautiful and so forth → other similar things can be expected chic → smart elegance and sophistication especially of dress or manner cuisine → a style of cooking; from French but going back to Latin wingspan → the distance from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other wing ranging → ranging from 8 to 12 means any number from 8 to 12 way fluffier → slang; means much fluffier; fluffier means very big and airy and in this case, complicated warm locals → the friendly, happy people who live there chilled out vibes → a relaxing way of living or of doing things

Where is St. Martin/Sint Maarten?

What are the people like?

What does one side French and one side Dutch mean?

What makes their food so different?

What is unique about the airport?

What is the biggest moth in the world? How big is it?

What do you think is the best thing that the island has?

We are now putting together a Facebook fan page for English Cafe. Visit us at:

<https://www.facebook.com/English-Cafe-857259744638607/>

Ask us your questions about English!